

Daily devotional

Monday- Think about today's verse. Pray and ask God to help you understand his word and apply it to your life.

¹⁸ For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us.

- Do you feel as though you have suffering in your life? _____
- If so how are you handling it? _____
- Do you have hope for the future? _____
- What do you think it will be like when Jesus returns? _____
- Read Thessalonians 4:13-18
- What is going on in your life presently that you need help from the Lord with?

Read Philippians 4:6-7 and use it as a guide to help you pray.

Supplication- Humbly asking God for his help with your needs.

Thanksgiving- Thanking God for your blessings.

Requests- Telling God what you think you need while accepting his will if different.
